

COMMUNITY ACCESS ANNOUNCES NEW MEMBER TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NEW YORK, June 25, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Community Access has named Richard A. Grossmann as the newest member of its Board of Directors. Community Access is a non-profit organization that expands opportunities for people living with mental health concerns to recover from trauma and discrimination through affordable housing, training, advocacy, and healing-focused services.

“We are delighted to give a warm welcome to Richard A. Grossmann as the newest member of our Board of Directors,” said Cal Hedigan, CEO of Community Access. “We deeply value his commitment to our mission and his passion for making New York City a better place to live for everyone.”

Richard A. Grossmann is a partner in the Real Estate Practice Group in the New York office of Kirkland & Ellis LLP. He represents clients in complex commercial real estate transactions, including joint ventures and other equity capital arrangements, acquisitions, dispositions, financing and M&A and restructuring transactions involving real estate and real estate-related businesses.

“I am honored to join Community Access’ board. Stable, supportive housing and mental health support are crucial for individuals to lead fulfilling lives,” said Grossmann. “I look forward to contributing to the vital work of Community Access empowering individuals and transforming communities across New York City through the development of housing and other programs and initiatives.”

Community Access has named Richard A. Grossmann as the newest member of its Board of Directors.

About Community Access

Founded in 1974, Community Access is a provider of supportive housing and support services in New York City for people living with mental health concerns. Rooted in the simple truth that people are experts in their own lives, Community Access expands opportunities for people living with mental health concerns to recover from trauma and discrimination through affordable housing, training, advocacy, and healing-focused services. Community Access provides person-centered services that help people pursue goals that are important to them – from gaining access to an affordable home, to learning new skills; from re-establishing community ties, to setting goals for the future.